

BRILLE ENERGY SYSTEMS INC. PROVIDES OPERATIONAL AND BUSINESS UPDATE AS AT JULY 27th, 2022

Key Operational Highlights:

- BESI UL9540 Certification Update for Energy Storage
- Braille Battery European Expansion Update

OTTAWA, ONTARIO, July 27th, 2022 – Braille Energy Systems Inc. (formerly Mincom Capital Inc.) (TSX-V: BES) (“BESI” or the “Company”), is pleased to announce the following operational and business updates:

- The Company is now moving to the UL9540 certification phase of its ESS (Energy Storage System) product, bringing it closer to launching its GEN1 system in early Q1 '23. Further to the previously announced RFQ review process, we have chosen CSA Group as our NRTL (Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory) partner to certify our Energy Storage System products. “The Canadian Engineering Team, led by BESI’s Chief Technology Officer Ivan Gissing, has worked with global industry partners to deliver this important milestone,” said Lindsay Weatherdon, President and CEO of BESI. Mr. Gissing added, “The certification phase of BESI’s new products is a key milestone in finalizing the commercial launch date of our products. Achieving this milestone has required significant engineering work in both hardware and software development, as well as the coordination of multiple UL standards including UL9540, UL9540A, UL1642, UL1973 and UL1741.”
- Braille Battery expands its business reach into European Motorsports Market with the hiring of Oliver Fall as its Director of Motorsports Business Development, EMEA. “The Braille Battery brand awareness in UK/Europe is very strong, and the opportunity to launch specific products for European Markets will accelerate our growth. Oliver’s lengthy history in the battery market, combined with a strong pedigree in the UK/European Motorsports Market, will deliver immediate results.” said Mr. Weatherdon.
